Press Release

Keith Thorogood and Jennifer Braney Join Presidio

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, and LONDON, UK, January 17, 2012

Presidio Reinsurance Group, Inc. (Presidio) is pleased to welcome Keith Thorogood and Jennifer Braney to our London-based company, Presidio Reinsurance Management, Ltd.

“The addition of Keith and Jennifer with their experience and expertise allows us to continue our focus on growth and providing risk management solutions to accident and health markets around the world. Keith brings with him over thirty-five years of market experience and significant broker/client relationships. Jennifer has developed a strong reputation in the London market and has a technical underwriting background. Both will be valuable and versatile additions to the Presidio team with their strong client focus and ability to design specific client-centered solutions” stated Craig Tyrell, Senior Vice President and Managing Director.

Keith commenced his career in 1968 in the broker market before moving to Underwriting with Merritt Syndicates in 1982. During his underwriting career he has been an Accident & Health Class Underwriter for various syndicates and held the position of Director of a Lloyd’s Underwriting Agency. More recently he was Class Underwriter at The Brit Syndicate and prior to that was Class Underwriter at The Catlin Group.

Prior to joining Presidio, Jennifer was part of the International Casualty and Accident Treaty team with OdysseyRe in London and has an established broker following. Jennifer, a graduate of The University of Pretoria in South Africa, is joining to assist in further building Presidio’s Specialty underwriting unit and will have responsibility for both accident and health products.
